

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

What is an Electric Aggregation Program?

Aggregation is an opportunity for cities, townships and counties to negotiate competitive electric supply prices and provide budget stability for their residents and small businesses.

First, residents must vote to give their township trustees the ability to negotiate electric prices for their community. Once a referendum is passed, townships are able to aggregate and elected officials can work with alternative energy suppliers to negotiate competitive electric prices.

In 2018, Madison Township voters authorized the Board of Trustees to form an aggregation program.

How was Dynergy chosen as the supplier?

The Madison Township implemented a formal process where proposals from multiple suppliers were submitted for consideration. Dynergy was ultimately selected by the Township.

ELIGIBILITY AND ENROLLMENT

Who is eligible to participate?

Residential and small business customers located in the Madison Township may participate. Customers enrolled in PIPP (Percentage of Income Plan) are not eligible. If you are served by an alternative retail supplier you will not be included in the initial program; however, you can call to be enrolled.

How do I enroll?

It's simple. It's automatic. Unless you "opt-out" of the program, all eligible customer accounts within the Madison Township boundaries will be enrolled in the program as long as they are not participating in one of the programs mentioned above. You will receive a "switch" letter from Ohio Edison, confirming your enrollment.

Do I have to participate in the program?

All eligible Ohio Edison customers within the Madison Township will receive an opt-out notification letter via U.S. mail. You may "opt-out" by returning the Opt-Out card by the deadline date identified in your notification. If you choose to opt-out, your account remains with Ohio Edison at their current utility rate.

If I don't want to be a part of the program, why do I have to opt-out?

The voters authorized the Madison Township to develop an aggregation program where each resident and small business is automatically enrolled. Therefore, if you prefer not to participate, you must opt out of the program.

What if I decide to opt-out after the deadline?

You may opt out at any time by notifying us via telephone, email, or mail. There is no cancellation fee.
